

CONTRAST

A magazine for those desiring to know the indwelling Christ

CONTRAST

The Format

Contrast Magazine will be an electronic magazine, sent out by email on a bi-monthly basis. The electronic PDF (portable document format) magazine format will allow distribution of a full color magazine without any size limitations. So, it can be as large or small as the content demands. This means of publishing and distribution eliminates all printing and mailing expenses while opening up a worldwide avenue for the Gospel.

At this time, it is evident that the use of printed media such as magazines and newspapers is decreasing. Therefore, since most are already acquiring their printed news and information from the internet and reading it on their computers, we feel that the emailed format for Contrast Magazine will be an effective means to reach and feed hungry hearts.

Why the Name?

The name CONTRAST was chosen because the contents of its pages will be just that. A contrast between the Old and the New, the letter and the Spirit, man's religious interpretations of the scripture and the Truth revealed in Christ, the glory of the Old and the ever present Glory of the New, the Old Testament promise of His coming and the reality of the present indwelling Son of God, Christ in you.

Subscribing

As already stated, this will be an emailed magazine, so we only need the name and email address of those interested in receiving it. If you know people you think would also appreciate this magazine, feel free to send us their email address as well. To stop receiving, simply email us and your address will be removed from our list.
